James G. Egan has been an active alumnus of English High School for over half a century. He served as president of the Blue & Blue alumni for two years. Also he served as president of the Class of 1925 for two years. He is author of the official poem of E.H.S. THE BOSTON ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL which is printed below. At present he is the lifetime poet laureate of the school. Last Thanksgiving at Boston University Stadium during the English-Latin Game Mr. Egan was with Roger Goodrich on Television Channel 5 discussing the 52 English vs. Latin games he had witnessed over the years. Mr. Egan is one of six men to have an area of English High named for him. On the tenth floor of the building is the JAMES G. EGAN POET LAUREATE AREA.

THE BOSTON ENGLISH HIGH SCHOOL

In 1821 when James Monroe was president
The English High School was founded in Boston
As the years passed, progress in education
Has produced leading citizens from this institution

Here where ethnic background is not important
Interest centers in individual development
At this institution a fine education may be obtained
And the student's potential may be achieved

English High has produced leaders in all walks of life
They have served in our wars to make their nation safe
As the tradition of America's oldest high school indicates
We take pride in the integrity of our graduates.

Poet Laureate English High School
National Poet Laureate AMVETS of World War II
Poet Laureate 182 Infantry Association
Poet Laureate Old Charlestown

LATIN

Once again, as Thanksgiving draws near, we look forward to the renewal of the oldest, and finest, schoolboy football rivalry in this area. The good-natured competitiveness and pride that exists among the members of both school communities is gratifying to me. I would like to commend the coaches and players of both schools; their spirit and determination are an asset to their schools, and to our city. I also wish to take this opportunity to congratulate the students and alumni of the English High on their 160th Anniversary. We wish them continued success. Together, we shall continue the traditions of academic excellence and athletic achievement that have flourished during the history of both schools.

ENGLISH

As English High School enters its 161st year, we enjoy our second oldest tradition, the English-Latin football game. This football game epitomizes all that is High School athletics: the titanic struggle between the two oldest schools in the country. On this holiday it certainly gives us reason to be thankful. We hope that all of the young people who participate in today's event will always remember and cherish the memories of their high school career and carry forward this tradition in their hearts and minds.

Happy Thanksgiving to all.

COACH COSTELLO'S STATEMENT

The 1981 season has been a tough and frustrating one for the Wolfpack. We have faced four outstanding football teams in Taunton, Bridgewater-Raynham, Acton-Boxborough, and St. John's Prep. We have seen potential victories slip away in the fourth quarter in four of our six losses. We have sustained more than our share of injuries to key personnel. Add to this a dismal athletic budget by the City of Boston and it makes competition with suburban schools all the more difficult.

Through all of this my players have remained competitive and resilient. They have endured in the face of adversity. I am sure that the lessons learned this season on the gridiron will serve them in good stead as they proceed through life.

I would like to thank my assistant coaches Paul Mami, Bob Perryman, Bill Davis and freshman coach Frank Stevens for their leadership efforts.

COACH PARKER'S STATEMENT

The 1981 Edition of English High Football has been a learning year and we know our opponents have a great tradition and we hope we will be able to rise to the challenge and prove a worthy opponent as in past years coming from our own great tradition.

B.L.S. FIGHT SONG

On the field of many colors
Latin's banners fly
Cheer on, Cheer like volley thunder
Echos to the sky.
See the Latin Team advancing.

Gaining more and more
So we'll fight, fight, fight
With all our might
Dear old Latin evermore.
